The International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR) was created over 40 years ago by General Counsel at Fortune 100 companies to promote efficiency and cost-effectiveness in commercial dispute prevention and resolution. At this seminar, participants will learn about CPR's thought leadership initiatives, its non-administered and administered arbitration rules, as well as its international mediation procedure. Participants will also have an opportunity to discuss with a panel of distinguished speakers some of the latest hot topics in international dispute resolution, including the latest trends in cybersecurity and data protection, the Pragues Rules, diversity and mediation. The seminar is jointly organized by the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution (CPR) and CPR European Advisory Board (EAB). The breakfast is generously sponsored by SAMANIEGO LAW and HENDEL IDR.
