

The Application of New York Law in Latin American Arbitrations

New York – 21 May 2019 (9:00 – 13:30)

Venue

Winston & Strawn LLP, 200 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10166

Description

Join us for a half-day programme featuring roundtable discussions with counsel from varied jurisdictions, in-house counsel and institutions examining the use of New York law in disputes arising out of Latin America. The panelists will shed light on the decision-making process when choosing New York law, the frequency with which they encounter it in their practice, and other considerations and observations from their experience. A networking lunch will follow the discussions.

Programme

9:00 – 9:30

Registration

9:30 – 9:45

Introductory Remarks

Given by Aldo Badini, Partner, Winston & Strawn LLP, New York, San Francisco, and Silicon Valley

9:45 – 11:00

The Application of New York Law from a Practitioner's Perspective

Ignacio Andrade, Partner, Sfera Legal, Guatemala

Maria Teresa Borja, Senior Associate, FERRERE, Ecuador

Diogo Ciuffo Carniero, Partner, Bichara Advogados, Brazil

Fernando Perez-Correa, Partner, SOLCARGO, Mexico

Moderated by: Rekha Rangachari, Executive Director, New York International Arbitration Center (NYIAC), New York

11:00 – 11:15

Break

11:15 – 12:30

The Application of New York Law from the In-House and Institutional Perspective

Pedro Arcoverde, Deputy Counsel, ICC International Court of Arbitration®, New York

Maria Ines Sola, Senior Counsel, Pan American Energy LLC, Argentina

Nancy Thevenin, General Counsel, ICC USA/United States Council for Business (USCIB), New York

Moderated by: Ricardo Ugarte, Chair of International Arbitration Practice; Partner, Winston & Strawn LLP, Chicago and London

12:30 – 13:30

Networking Lunch

Registration

Programme is free of charge but registration is required here: <https://iccwbo.org/event/application-new-york-law-latin-american-arbitrations/>.

Co-organized with and hosted by:

WINSTON
& STRAWN
LLP

Supported by:

NY  AC | New York
International Arbitration Center