KENNEL CLUB®

Welcome to the American Kennel Club's 2nd Rally® National Championship and 21st National Obedience Championship
March 13-15, 2015

Thank you for joining us for the 2nd AKC Rally® National Championship (RNC) and the 21st annual AKC National Obedience Championship (NOC). You have worked hard to meet the qualifications; we congratulate you and are pleased to welcome you and your dogs to these prestigious events.

The AKC Rally® National Championship will consist of four rally classes – Novice, Advanced, Excellent and Rally Advanced Excellent. Dogs have qualified to enter the event by earning titles and qualifying scores. This year, 317 teams will compete in the Rally® National Championship that will culminate with the winner of the RAE class named the AKC Rally® National Champion!

In addition, thousands of competitors have exhibited in obedience trials throughout the qualifying period in order to become a top ranking dog for their breed to be eligible for this event. The field has been narrowed to the top-ranking dogs in each breed, the top 25 dogs overall based on Obedience Trial Champion (OTCH) points and the Regional Qualifier winners. The National Obedience Championship will have 121 teams competing during the weekend, all vying to become the AKC National Obedience Champion!

Special appreciation goes to our sponsor J & J Dog Supplies, for their continued support of our events. Please take a moment to visit their booth and express your appreciation. The AKC and RB Rubber Products are happy to provide you with a 'Welcome Reception' on Friday afternoon. Be certain to kick back and spend some time catching up with friends you have not seen in a while and make some new friends at this social event. The AKC also expresses its appreciation to the over 60 volunteers that have offered their time and expertise to make this event a success, for without them, an event of this size would not be possible.

The 15 championship judges were selected for their experience and sound judgment and we are so happy to have them here this weekend. The AKC thanks them for the time they have committed to these events and their dedication to the sports we all enjoy so much.

All of us in Companion Events wish all of you the best of luck over the next three days and thank you for being here. Remember to enjoy each other's company, the company of your dog and to enjoy the championships!

Sincerely,

Doug Ljunggren

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Richard DiMarco Auburn Township, OH.

Richard started training dogs at age seven when he received his first dog, a Boxer. He raised and trained several more Boxers while in school and college, but never competed with them.

“When I lost the last Boxer, I purchased an Akita with an arrangement to show in breed competition,” he said.

Richard went on to owner-handle the Akita to its conformation championship and then spent the next six years professionally handling working breeds in the conformation ring.

“With the purchase of another Boxer, I returned to performance and titled the dog to a CDX before he developed spinal problems,” he said. Since then, Richard has titled three other Boxers to CD and/or CDX titles.

He became an AKC Rally judge during the first year of the program and plans to become an obedience judge.

Richard has served as an obedience instructor for a recreation board for 25 years and also has volunteered with his local 4-H dog clubs as an instructor and judge. He is currently competing with a Golden Retriever in Utility.

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Nancy Grimm Casa Grande, AZ.

Nancy was introduced to the sport of dog obedience in 1999 by a large, unruly Great Dane.

“Although I never competed with him, Max and I learned everything together, and we developed a bond and I developed a love for the sport,” she said.

She started competing in 2001 with a Weimaraner named Gandalf. Since that time, she has titled another Great Dane and five Weimaraners through CD and two of the Weims through UD. Gandalf retired from obedience with six UDX legs and multiple High in Trial and High Combined awards. Nancy’s Weims have ranked in the Top 10 Obedience dogs of the breed for 2002, 2006, 2008 and 2009. Nancy also has competed with her Weims in agility at the Excellent level.

Nancy and her husband, Michael, currently share life with three Weimaraners: Nali, 13; Strider, 8; and Gimlet, 2 ½.

“All my Weims have titled in AKC Rally through RE except Gimlet, who has her RN. She recently was awarded her CD and is currently competing in Open. She also finished her breed championship. Strider is a breed Grand Champion and, while he has his CD, GN and RE, he enjoys being a beautiful couch potato much more than being in the obedience or agility ring. Nali, the oldest, enjoys being the ‘grande dame’ of the house.”

Nancy started judging rally in 2005 shortly after AKC recognized the sport and began judging obedience in 2008.

“Judging has been a wonderful experience for me and has given me the chance to meet some incredible people. It has also provided me with the opportunity to see some amazing performances in the obedience and rally rings...I look forward to judging at the Rally National Championship and wish everyone the best of luck.”

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Cheryl Pratt Alexandria, VA.

When her family brought home a Great Dane puppy, Cheryl went in search of dog training help.

“Up until then I had always had small dogs.

Knowing this boy would outweigh me, I found a local training club and enrolled in a basic obedience class. Like most of us involved in the sport of obedience, I became hooked.”

Over the next 20 years, Cheryl trained two more Great Danes, a Labrador Retriever, and a retired racing Greyhound, earning four more CD’s and two CDX’s. She currently is pursuing a UDX with a Vizsla, who holds the RAE and UD titles.

“I became involved with rally when it first started in 2005 after attending a seminar with a friend who convinced me to apply to be a judge. Judging rally has been so much fun that I decided to apply for obedience.”

Cheryl is a provisional Novice Obedience Judge and is working towards applying for Open. She is the training director and trial secretary for the Mount Vernon Dog Training Club.

“I would like to thank the AKC for giving me the honor of being one of the judges at the 2015 Rally National Championship. It’s such a joy to watch a team having fun and working together in the ring. I would like to wish everyone good luck, remember to breathe, and make sure you hug your dog when you leave the ring.”

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Sharon Redmer Whitmore Lake, MI.

Sharon Redmer acquired her first Belgian Tervuren puppy in 1971, and fell in love with the breed. Sharon and her husband Edward have gone on to breed Tervuren for more than 30 years under the "StarBright" kennel name, producing many top dogs in many sports.

More than 125 AKC conformation champions have been finished; many are also an Obedience Trial Champion, Herding Champion, or Tracking Champion; a High in Trial winner; a Group placer; or National Specialty awardee.

Sharon is an AKC Obedience and Rally judge. She is also approved to judge Best in Show, the Herding Group, Poodles, Doberman Pinschers, and the Miscellaneous Class breeds.

In December 2012, the American Kennel Club awarded Sharon the AKC Lifetime Achievement Award in Companion Events. Sharon has been honored to judge at the NOC twice and at many obedience and rally tournaments.

Sharon also has judged obedience, conformation or rally at national specialties and all-breed shows in England, France, Germany, Australia, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Canada and China. In 2014 she was honored to be the first non-European conformation judge ever to officiate at the French National Specialty show for Belgian Shepherd Dogs.

Sharon wishes each competitor the very best experience at the AKC Rally® National Championship. "Enjoy the moment!"

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Dr. Pamela C. Regan Redondo Beach, CA.

Pamela identifies herself as a “dog person, plain and simple.”

“I can’t remember a time when I didn’t love dogs (in fact, my earliest Christmas wish was for a really big dog), and one of the happiest moments of my life was when my parents let me pick out my very first dog from a local shelter. That was in 1977, and I’ve been training and exhibiting and enjoying this wonderful world of dog sports ever since.”

Pamela started seriously competing with a pair of “loyal, smart, big-hearted” Collies. She currently competes with a Belgian Tervuren in obedience, rally, agility, herding, and conformation “and anything else that strikes our fancy – she likes to do stuff.”

Her dogs have earned 300-plus qualifying scores and class placements, more than 20 national top 10 performance rankings, multiple all-breed High in Trial and High Combined obedience awards, and more than 30 performance titles. “All of which, by the way, pale in comparison to the sheer joy I feel working with my dogs and spending time with other dog people,” Pamela says.

Rally is her favorite sport of all the performance activities in which she competes and judges.

“I truly admire the way it emphasizes communication and teamwork between the dog and handler, while at the same time encouraging and rewarding efficiency and precision. I first became aware of rally in the year 2000 when a local club offered an informal seminar in conjunction with its obedience trial. The basic elements were presented, a novice course was set up, and exhibitors were allowed to walk the course and have a ‘fun run’ with their dogs. I went through multiple times with my own (and my friends’) dogs, and as soon as rally became an official AKC sport, my dogs and I began to compete.

“The time I’ve spent as an exhibitor certainly has informed my work as a judge – I know what it feels like to walk into the ring and put all those months (and sometimes years) of training on the line. My goal as a judge is to treat exhibitors and their dogs well, to create courses that both challenge and excite them, to welcome them into the ring with warmth and courtesy, to score them fairly and consistently, and to uphold the American Kennel Club’s principles of good sportsmanship.”

Pamela said she is deeply honored to have been invited to judge this year’s AKC Rally® National Championship.

“I look forward to seeing everyone in the ring and at the site. I wish all the dog-handler teams (and my fellow judges) the very best!”

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Julie Rembrandt Seeley Harvard, MA.

Julie has been a professional dog trainer since 1988 and is a co-owner of DogStar Activity Center in Acton, MA.

She holds a professional membership in the Association of Pet Dog Trainers (APDT) and is a Certified Professional Dog Trainer – Knowledge Assessed (CPDT-KA) from the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers. She was among the first trainers to take the certification exam when it was created in 2001. Julie is an active member of the Massachusetts Federation of Dog Clubs & Responsible Dog Owners.

Julie and her husband, John, breed and exhibit Miniature and Standard Poodles, under the kennel name Rembrandt, in conformation, obedience, rally and agility. They have been breeding and exhibiting their own dogs since 1983 and have produced 45 breed champions, including several nationally ranked all-breed and specialty Best in Show winners and many obedience and agility title holders.

Julie trained and handled multiple group winner Ch. Rembrandt Dreams of Glory, CD RE, who earned her AKC Rally Novice, AKC Rally Advanced and AKC Rally Excellent titles in nine trials with several perfect scores.

She and John currently share their home with their Miniature and Standard Poodles and one Papillon. Julie is training several dogs in obedience and rally, competing with several conformation dogs, and competing in agility with her young dog, Eclipse Rembrandt Rhiannon. When time allows, she makes visits with her therapy dogs—Miniature Poodle, Rembrandt Helbent To Dream AX AXJ TDI and Papillon, Ch. Rorralore Renzo.

2015 AKC RALLY® NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Barb Wedekind Selton Bloomington, MN.

In 2009, the Bloomington Obedience Training Club sponsored the AKC Obedience Judges' Seminar. Barb helped organize the event for her club and started thinking about her long-term goals.

"I mentioned to a club member, who was a judge, 'You know, someday when I retire, I would like to become a judge.' She looked at me and said, 'What are you waiting for?' And thus I started my AKC Judging career." Barb filled out the application and started "my great journey."

"One of the biggest eye openers for me, even though I had been training and showing dogs since 1980, was how little I knew about what it took to judge. But I loved it from day one and still do."

She judged her first obedience trial on October 2, 2010 and was approved for Novice in late 2011 and made the final step of being approved for Utility in May 2014.

"Handlers often tell me 'You make it such a wonderful experience in the ring,' and I respond, 'Because I love judging,' and they say it shows. Don't get me wrong. Judging is hard work. But when you see a handler and a dog working as a team, like one moving soul it is like watching magic unfolding before you...when you see a person get their title that they have been struggling to get for months or years...when you see the young junior handler with their first dog, or the older person with their old dog, still getting out there...these are just some of the moments that make it all worthwhile."

Barb and her husband, Phillip, have one son and three grandchildren, with a new one on the way. She has worked for 27 years as administrator for Urology Associates, Ltd., a private practice in the Twin Cities area with 15 physicians and 22 clinics. She shares life with two Golden Retrievers: Brandy, 7, and Bella, 4, both currently competing at the Utility level.

"I am truly honored to have been chosen to judge the 2015 AKC Rally® National Championship and wish all of the competitors the best of luck."

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Julianne Cepulis Milwaukee, WI.

Julianne's 45-year obedience career started with the family dog who needed some help with manners.

"It all began with a Labrador Retriever, a family dog with a very high energy level and a keen sense of humor," she said. "Together we earned a CD, CDX and UD as well as a tracking title. After that experience, I was hooked."

Julianne went on to train seven different breeds, each with their own set of challenges. "All of them were family dogs, and their obedience achievements simply added to the pleasure of owning them. More recently, I have trained and exhibited three Border Collies and enjoyed earning the OTCH title on two of them, as well as several 200 scores."

In the early 1970s, Julianne started judging obedience and has continued as an AKC Obedience Judge for the past 40 years. "Ours is a sport that has undergone numerous changes, and I believe most of them have improved the level of competition and sportsmanship that we are currently experiencing."

She said she looks forward to seeing the competitors in the ring at the NOC.

"I would like to thank the AKC for the honor of being chosen to judge at this prestigious event. I wish all the teams the satisfaction of bringing the best performance to the ring at this very exciting and enjoyable competition."

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Patricia R. Krause Rhineland, WI.

Pat has been in the dog show world since the late 1960's, showing Irish Setters in obedience, conformation and field events. She has had Border Collies since 1975, earning numerous obedience titles and breed championships on them, as well as on her Pomeranian.

She was an Obedience Judge for many years prior to taking a position in 1999 as the Director of Obedience for the American Kennel Club. In May 2000 she was named Assistant Vice-President of Companion Events.

Since retiring from the AKC in May 2005, Pat has resumed judging obedience and rally and, in her spare time, volunteers at Wild Instincts Wildlife Rehabilitation Center as an animal/raptor rescuer and rehabilitator. Her other activities include fishing, golfing, gardening, oil painting and spending time with her wonderful family, including an Australian Shepherd, Maddie.

Pat is honored to judge the 2015 AKC National Obedience Championship.

"Congratulations and good luck to everyone competing in this very special event!"

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Donald A. Levinson Alexandria, VA.

Obedience training entered Donald's life in 1973 when he became the third owner of a 10-month-old Doberman Pinscher, who was a "give away to a good home." He enrolled the dog in an obedience class, and it all began.

"She went on to become a breed champion and a Utility Dog," he said. "I have shared my home with and loved a number of Dobes since then and have enjoyed training and showing all of them."

Donald started judging obedience in 1985 and has judged all over the country, making many friends in the process. "I have reached a point today where almost all of my good friends are in the dog fancy," he said.

Donald enjoys spending time with his family that includes one daughter and two granddaughters; as well as three stepsons and their families: five granddaughters, two grandsons, and one great-grandson.

"I enjoyed judging the NOI in 1997 and 2005, and am looking forward to judging the 2015 NOC. I wish all the exhibitors good luck and hope everyone enjoys the event."

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Kathy Moore

Norco, CA.

Kathy is a self-described “dog show brat.” Her parents dragged her to hundreds of show as a young child.

But after she grew up, Kathy re-discovered dogs and training and discovered that she loved the dog show world.

“I started showing in obedience in Novice A with my blue merle Shetland Sheepdog, Laci, in 1989,” she said. “Laci had a short obedience career due to illness, but she got me hooked on training and competing in obedience.”

Since Laci, Kathy has owned and trained a Toy Poodle, Belgian Tervuren, Greyhound and Whippet. She currently owns three Border Collies and a rare breed, a Silken Windhound, which she describes as a “training challenge.” Kathy and her dogs regularly compete in obedience, rally, conformation and agility.

Her first Border Collie, Luci, attained an OTCH, RE, MXP and MJP. Her Whippet, Bogi, earned a CDX, JC and RE. Her next Border Collie, Regi, was a Champion, UDX2, OM1, RE, AXP, AJP, and retired from competing at age 11. Tali, another Border Collie, is currently showing in Open and Utility. Kindi is her Border Collie in training, and Lexi, the Silken Windhound, “keeps me on my toes in trying to find new ways to work with her.”

Kathy began judging obedience and rally in 2000 and says her favorite part of the job is seeing dogs and handlers who love to work together.

“I love to watch a happy team working briskly in the obedience ring. Precision is needed for a good score, but I personally appreciate seeing a dog and handler team that is excited to be in the ring and working together. I like to see dogs that enjoy working – dogs that are intent on doing the job given them and that have a positive attitude.”

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Diane J. Propst Gravois Mills, MO.

Shortly after enrolling her Scottish Terrier in obedience classes at Westside Dog Training Club in Chicago, Diane saw the training director working her dog in Utility.

"I thought it was fascinating and wanted to have my dog learn it too," she said. "We went on to earn our UD title, and then I was hooked."

Diane started judging obedience in 1971 and has actively shown her own dogs in obedience, agility, tracking and rally. She currently owns three Miniature Poodles, but also has titled all sizes of Poodles, Shetland Sheepdogs and a Doberman Pinscher, in addition to Scottish Terriers.

Her oldest Miniature Poodle is retired, having earned his UD, UDX and RE. Her current competitor, Tango, completed his OTCH in 2014 and his MACH in 2013. Her youngest Miniature Poodle is almost ready for Novice obedience, having earned his BN, PCD, RN, and is competing in Novice agility.

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Richard Strong Indianapolis, IN.

Richard's nearly lifelong involvement with competition obedience all started when he cracked a joke about his mother's attempts to train the family Golden Retriever.

"When I chastised my mother for the peculiar way in which she was training, she handed me the dog and gave me a weekly ride to dog school," he said. "A few months later, I completed the class and attended my first fun match. I had a really enjoyable time, earned a nearly perfect score and won all the hardware I could load into the car. That was all it took to make me into a lifelong obedience fancier."

Richard's numerous achievements in the sport include multiple OTCH's, UDX's and tournament placements. He was approved to judge AKC events in 1978.

"Judging has given me the pleasure of meeting many new friends and judging countless wonderful dogs across the country." A retired process control engineer for a major pharmaceutical company, Richard spends 75 percent of weekends either judging or showing at obedience trials.

When not showing or judging, he can be found teaching competitive obedience classes and presenting seminars. He also has been active in many dog-related organizations, having served in virtually all board positions in several clubs as well as show/trial secretary/chairman for local clubs and regional and national tournaments.

"The special human at my house is my wife, my love and fellow judge Pat," he said. "Our four Goldens keep us happy and busy."

He said he is looking forward to the 2015 AKC National Obedience Championship. "I am honored to have been invited to judge the NOC."

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

James "Jim" Thomson Kirkland, WA.

Jim acquired his first purebred dog, a German Shepherd puppy, in 1969 and quickly decided that both he and the dog needed to learn more about obedience training if the relationship was to last. After moving to Pennsylvania three years later, the duo became active in obedience trials and began to show in the advanced classes.

Following the GSD, Jim went on to train the number-one obedience Afghan Hound and number-one obedience Saluki in the country, earning a High In Trial and a UD with the Saluki. He journeyed into the breed ring with only one dog to acquire a breed championship on his owner-bred, UD, Field Champion Saluki.

Jim was approved as an obedience judge after moving to eastern Washington state in 1978. He and his wife, Lesley, lived there, raising their son and daughter (also engineers), breeding, training and showing dogs as a family, and attending horse shows with their daughter until 2000 when they moved to Sequim, WA.

After training sight hounds for the obedience ring for more than 25 years, Lesley thought Jim should have a change and bought Wizard, a Standard Poodle. Wizard became a registered therapy dog and was shown at all levels in agility, obedience and rally, plus he enjoyed tracking.

An engineer by profession, Jim is retired and lives in Kirkland, WA, with Lesley and a Saluki, Zak. They spend the winter months in Palm Desert, CA.

Jim has worked many dog show/trial related jobs over the last 40 years, was a founding member of the Columbia Basin Dog Training Club, and is currently the obedience chairman for the Kennel Club of Palm Springs.

2015 AKC NATIONAL OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIP JUDGE

Teresa E. Walker Flemington, NJ.

Teresa is part of a dog sport family and grew up watching her mother, Elsie, train and show her dogs.

Teresa began training and competing in obedience in 1972 with her first Pembroke Welsh Corgi. Her sister Kathy began competing a few years later.

“Over the years I have had the privilege of sharing my life with many wonderful Pembrokes, Flat-Coated Retrievers, Border Collies, a German Shepherd and a French Bulldog,” Teresa said.

She began judging obedience in 2004. She also has been very supportive of 4-H, having served as a member, instructor and leader. Her mother has operated a dog training school since 1985 and opened the Hunterdon K9 Center in 2007, where Teresa, her sister, and mother all teach classes.

“My dogs and I participate in multiple dog sports but my first love will ALWAYS be the sport of obedience,” she said. “I look forward to an awesome weekend of competition at the NOC. Good luck everyone and most importantly have fun with your K9 teammate!”

KALEA TRISTAN

RAE3, MXB, MJS, MXF, TDI

Tristan arrived in our home as a small, red puppy who was hesitant and withdrawn. With attention he gained confidence and emerged as the “Little Red Rocket” who can and does! He is willing, energetic, resilient, sound, “easy on the eyes” and has fantastic drive. His titles in diverse venues show his talent and determination to please. Second in 2013 AKC Nationals Rally Excellent, in 2015 he has qualified for AKC Nationals in both Agility and Rally.

Standing at Stud: CEA/PRA “Clear”, OFA Hips “Good”, OFA Elbows, Heart, DJD (Degenerative Joint Disease) all “Normal” Conformation Points, Sable and White
