

#MVCNlife

Pastor Jeff Borden | October 7, 2018

Mission-Critical

Practical Faith Is:

- Love (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)
- Spiritual Fruit (Galatians 5:22-23)
- Selfless acts of Service to Others
- Growing together in Triune Community (John 17:21)

Pursuing the Mission:

- Mission-Critical Factor: Christian Maturity!

Missional Drift:

- Lack of Focus
- Lack of Discipline
- Lack of Vision
- Lack of Obedience

Mission Clarity:

- Starts with Obedience to the Mission
- Focus on Developmental Exercises
- A Balanced Devotional Life

HOMEGROUP & PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

1. How would you summarize #MVCNlife (what our church mission statement reflects and how the church is faithful to the mission)? What does #MVCNlife mean personally to you?
2. In what ways are you committed to your personal discipleship? (Please be specific)
3. In what ways are you committed and participating in making disciples? (be specific)
4. Pastor Jeff spoke to us about “Missional Drift” and some of the causes for that drift. Are there any of those examples that you can identify with? (share your personal experiences)
5. We also learned of some ways to maintain mission clarity in our teaching today. What are some of the ways or tools you maintain focus and mission clarity?
6. How would you describe a balanced devotional life? How would you rate your devotional life as balanced? Please give an explanation for your answers.