NOTES:

HOMEGROUP & PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

1. When reading our text from 2 Corinthians, the Apostle Paul made a statement, “And God will generously provide all you need.” What does this mean to you? How would you interpret “all you need”?
2. The Apostle continues his thought with the following words, “You will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others.” (vs. 8) What emotions does this stir in you? Please explain your thoughts.
3. When you hear the words, “God is the one who provides the seed and the bread,” how does this help you understand the origin, ownership, and responsible stewardship of your provisions and resources?
4. (See 2 Corinthians 9:11) “You will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous.” Please share your thoughts about this statement. Are you living into this statement of faith? Please share your experience.
5. What do you think about God’s plan for provision for humanity? Does it sound like a plan for wealth redistribution? Please share your thoughts on this.
