

IDAHO LEGISLATIVE SPORTSMEN'S CAUCUS

est. 2004

LEADERSHIP

Senator Mark Harris

Representative Judy Boyle
Representative Ned Burns

Since inception, the Idaho Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus has continued to work for benefit of conservation and Idaho's sporting community by advocating for pro-sportsmen's policy in Boise. Milestone accomplishments have included legislation as authorizing the establishment of a Hunters Feeding the Hungry program, allowing children with life threatening medical conditions to participate in specific hunts, banning internet hunting, instituting an apprentice hunting program and amending the Idaho Constitution to protect the right to hunt, fish, and trap. ILSC continues to maintain a collaborative relationship with the Idaho Department of Fish and Game, the Fish and Game Commission and their sportsmen and women constituents.
