

God Will Always Love Me

Those who work with children stress the importance of consistency. Our consistency helps to create trust. Without trust, it's much harder for kids to grow into independent, resilient, thriving adults.

Honestly, though, we can't always be there for our kids. Job responsibilities. Illness. Garden-variety fatigue. These are just a few of the things that get in our way.

Nothing gets in our Savior's way! The Bible tells us:

I have loved you with an everlasting love.

Jeremiah 31:3

God's love for us in Christ never quits. Our Lord never gets tired of loving us, of caring for us, of forgiving us. Talk with your child this week about what a blessing that consistent love really is!

God Will Always Love Me

People who love us listen to us. They are kind to us. They do things for us that make us smile. People who love us forgive us when we mess up.

Still, people can't always do these things for us, no matter how much they may want to.

But Jesus' love is always, always here for us. Nothing can stop Jesus from listening and being kind. Nothing can stop Jesus from forgiving us and giving us peace. Aren't you glad?!
