

Goal: Raise awareness of and respond to childhood exposure to violence through workforce development.

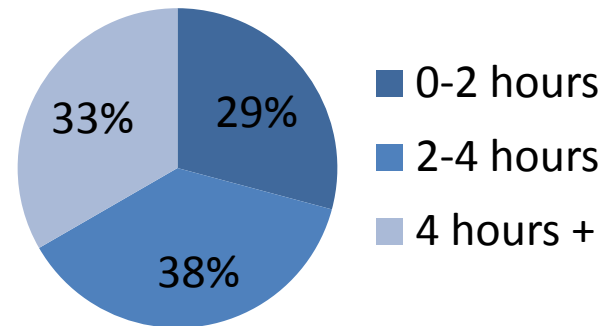

What was the impact in 2014?

138
training hours

approximately 716
Participants

26 separate training events

Hours per training

Who? Professionals in the fields of K-12 education, school counseling, early childhood education and development, mental health, community health, youth development, domestic violence services, social work, child welfare and higher education.

