

How to: enable compression on Litespeed web servers

The best way to enable compression in Litespeed is to do it through the configuration under "tuning". You can access this in your WebAdmin console:

Configuration > Server > Tuning.

Scroll down to "enable compression" and check to see if it is on. If not then please click "edit" then check the box to turn it on.