

Personal Item Presentation

Mrs. Harmon and Mrs. Ewell

Inside Out and Back Again

Ha went through many transitions in her life while both finding and fleeing home. She and her family left many things behind including personal items they felt helped define who they were as people.

If you had to flee home, and could only take one item with you, what would it be?
(Think silently in your head, we'll be sharing out soon.)

Personal Item Presentation

You will create a 1-2 minute presentation about ONE item you own at home that you think helps define YOU!

You will:

- 1) Bring this item in from home to share with the class.
- 2) Create a short (4 slide minimum, including your title page) Google Slide presentation sharing the story of why this item is important to you.
- 3) You will be presenting on FRIDAY, and you WILL be timed to fit everyone in the timeframe. Remember: 1-2 minutes isn't that long!

Categories	1	2	3	4
Length of Presentation (Time Limit)	Presented for less than 30 seconds.	Presented for 30-45 seconds.	Presented for 45-59 seconds.	Presented between 1-2 minutes.
Creativity	No theme was chosen.	A theme was chosen but no extra visuals or effects were included.	A theme is chosen, some visuals	A clear theme can be seen throughout the presentation. Pictures were added to guide the presentation.
Grammar/ Punctuation	Many grammatical/ spelling errors throughout the presentation. Slides didn't make sense.	2 or more grammatical/punctuation issues throughout the presentation. Slides make sense, but sentences do not represent complete thoughts.	2 or less grammatical/punctuation issues. Sentences are well structured and represent complete thoughts.	No grammatical errors or punctuation issues. Spelling is correct and sentences are highly structured.
Presentation	Incomplete slides/did not meet the required 4 slides. Hard to hear when speaking. Didn't connect to the audience. Presentation did not include "a hook".	Less than the required amount of slides. Hard to hear/understand when speaking. Didn't connect to the audience. The presenter read off the slides the whole presentation.	Less than the required amount of slides. The presenter had a good speaking voice and looked comfortable while presenting. Included "a hook" and did not read off the slides.	All required slides are in the presentation. The presenter did not read material off the slides. The presenter had a great speaking voice, good posture, and included "a hook".

Title Slide

Let's create your first slide together!

Log into your chromebook and go to Google Slides. Title your presentation with the item you'll be sharing and your name.

Your title slide SHOULD include:

- 1) A title
  - 2) Your name
  - 3) The date of your presentation (1/6/17)
  - 4) Should set the theme for your presentation!
-

Continue Working!

You will have this rotation today and tomorrow to complete your presentation and have a staff member sign off on your slides.

Remember: DUE THIS FRIDAY JANUARY 6, 2017!