

Quality Improvement for Excellent Patient Care

Through voluntary participation in the ACR Lung Cancer Screening Registry, our facility compares its lung cancer screening performance to other facilities nationwide.

We use these objective comparisons to advance our lung cancer screening practice, target specific areas for improvement, implement quality improvement programs and improve patient care.

This area is customizable