

Quality Improvement for Excellent Patient Care

Through voluntary participation in the ACR Dose Index Registry®, our facility compares its CT dose information to other facilities nationwide.

We use this objective comparison to optimize patient radiation dose, ensure patients receive safe, quality imaging, target specific areas for improvement and implement quality improvement programs.

This area is customizable

