

Quality Improvement for Excellent Patient Care

Through voluntary participation in the ACR General Radiology Improvement Database, our facility compares its practice performance to other facilities nationwide.

We use these objective comparisons to advance our practice of radiology, target specific areas for improvement, implement quality improvement programs and improve patient care.

This area is customizable