

Process Diagram for the FAW Requalification Course

30/7/2015

Notes:

- Where a learner certificate has expired longer than 1 month, the Learner can only attempt the FAW Requalification course once.
- If the expiry date on the old certificate is greater than 2 months old, submission of a Special Consideration form (CXX) is required.
- The validity start date on the new certificate will be the last day of the course irrespective of the expiry date of the old certificate.

Employer Note: If the First Aiders' Certificate has expired. The person can no longer act as a workplace first aider.