Impero Software Limited EdLink Privacy Policy

This is the Impero Software Ltd Privacy Policy (hereinafter known as the “privacy policy”). This policy relates exclusively to the Impero EdLink. In general, we only collect information that allows us to provide you with the best possible functionality and its specific details are set out in this policy below.

(1) Collected Information

The EdLink software collects information around the location of the device and any applications used as part of the normal use of the solution.

The purpose of this data is to recover lost devices and perform control & monitoring functions on the target devices.

(2) How we use the collected information

The information is only accessible by authorized users of the system. This is typically the system safe guarding team and/or system administrators.

The control of access to this data is under the control of the customer and should be managed appropriately.

You are responsible for protecting the confidentiality of your password and all activities and changes on your account. You agree to use the software only as authorized in the conditions prescribed in this policy and the EULA.

Impero will not pass-on any information or otherwise share any information collected to a third party without written permission.

(3) Security

Impero take the security of all stored data seriously and have adopted measures to protect users information. Please note that although we take extensive security measures to protect your data, it is not an absolute guarantee that your information will be accessed and used in the case of unauthorized access.

(4) Contacting Us/Reporting Violations

If you have any privacy policy-related questions or comments, or need to report any policy violations or abuse of the behaviour of the application, service, or website, please contact us: security@Imperosoftware.com

(5) Changes to Privacy Policy

We reserve the right, at any time by our sole discretion, to change or modify this policy. You must periodically review this policy so that you understand any changes. If you do not agree to any modification of this policy, you can immediately stop using all the applications, services, and websites. After the policy changes, if you continue to use any application, service, or website, it means you accept the modified policy. Please note that our agents or resellers do not have the right to change any of our policies.
