

The First Time a Teacher Logs In to an eText

The first thing you need to do when you open an eText for the first time is to create a Course Title, so that your students are able to find your course and connect with your eText. This will allow you to use the Share Notes feature.

1. The first time you open a particular eText title, you will see this screen:

PEARSON Welcome kelly ronan Bookshelf | Help | Sign Out

 Book ID: 6780
Math Makes Sense 3 W MCP - (Common Edition) - Ray Appel, Dorothy Galvin, Sharon Jeroski, Wendy Weight, Ricki Wortzman, Trevor Brown, Lorelei Gibeau, Peggy Morrow, Mignonne Wood

4. If you forget your Course ID, you can always find it by looking at the bottom right-hand corner of your eText once you have logged in.

The screenshot displays the Pearson eText interface for 'Math Makes Sense 3'. The top navigation bar includes the Pearson logo, user information ('Welcome kelly ronan'), and links for 'Pearson Demo', 'Bookshelf', 'Settings', 'Help', and 'Sign Out'. Below this is a search bar and a navigation menu with options like 'Browse', 'My Searches', and 'Instructor View'. The main content area features the book cover with the title 'Math Makes Sense 3' and a large red circle containing the number '3'. The cover image shows a close-up of a rabbit's face. On the left side, there is a 'Table of Contents' section with a list of units and investigations. At the bottom of the page, the copyright information 'Copyright © 2013 Pearson Canada' and various links are visible. A red circle highlights the 'eText Course ID: ronan0207931eb' located in the bottom right corner of the page.
