ALPACA PICNIC

STUFF

1. Peel + stick felt face

2. Add fluff, through opening. push fluff into furthest areas of ears, feet, and tail, first.
A chopstick or the handle end of a tall spoon is super helpful.

3. Sew a whipstitch.
A. Thread needle through fabric
B. Loop over front and through the bottom
C. Pull snugly and repeat until you have sewn opening
D. Finish by threading needle through last stitch and knotting

SEW

4. Thread your needle.
5. Fold felt saddlebag, as shown.
6. Sew a running stitch to close. Wrap thread over to opposite side, knot and trim excess.

7. To make alpaca's blanket, weave white felt strips into red felt, as shown.

8. To build alpaca's storage stand, start with brown side facing up. Fold ALL scored sides toward you.

9. While looking at bottom, tuck short sides under bottom fold. Secure by tucking the larger trapezoid side into the slit. Fold side tab in to slot.

10. Reuse spools from embroidery thread as baby alpacas.

11. To use the printed box interior as a playland, have an adult carefully cut top and side box flaps—remember to keep the bottom flaps as a stand.

12. Tie on bandana, now alpaca is ready for the picnic!
