

High Credit Score, .....Big Loans .....All in 30 DAYS Our Guarantee is, .....You Will Do It Yourself

No matter how well your bank knows you, it is not easy to straighten the frowned eyebrows staring at your credit details after you apply for a loan. After all, the lenders must know how much risk they take before lending you money. It is absolutely fair on their part as you will be liable for paying back the amount over a considerably long period of time.

So, would you like to wait outside the lender's office, have million cups of coffees (in a period of possibly a year or more) answer umpteen numbers of questions to assure the money lending company of your sincerity about paying back all future loans no matter how much time you have taken to repay your previous debts? It is understandable how you spend sleepless nights beside your wife when she keeps on complaining about the dripping roofs, rotten window frames, torn back-seat of the car, rusty shutter of the garage, paints coming off the walls, etc.

So, what if your wallet ditches you.....? What if your pay check falls short on fulfilling your dreams.....? What if your savings cut a sorry figure.....?

Solution to all these problems is a considerable amount of money that can be useful for buying a car or making renovation works in the house possible. Nevertheless, it is difficult to get loan if your credit score is not quite high. The money lending organizations can hardly be blamed for it. After all, it is your credit score that make your liability seem credible to them.

It is not a big deal anymore to impress the lending company provided you have a highest credit score possible. The score simply documents and reflects your performance in repaying all the previous credits. Credit score is calculated on the basis of your credit history, amount, length of time over which it has been repaid, newly opened credits and the types of credit you have.

Why is Your Credit Score Low?

So, the problem is a stigma that low credit score bears with it and stops you from taking big loans for future expenses. Multiple reasons are responsible for a low credit score that humiliates you every time there is some plan of borrowing a considerable sum for buying assets like house, car, etc. Let's focus on a few reasons why you probably ended with a low credit score.

Probably, you did not have a very clear idea about how to build a good credit score.

Did you pay all your bills on time? Or did you not pay them at all?

Did you consult an expert for a smart money management procedure that could salvage you in trouble?

Probably, you need to gain detailed information about credit management procedures.

Do I Have A Low Credit Score?

‘YES’, if it is lower than 600 and ‘NOT AT ALL’ if it is more than 700. A 3 digit score between 300 and 850 is awarded to a borrower with some debts and some refunds. The credit score is decided on the existing financial obligations such as, car EMI, mortgage repayment, credit card bills, loan refunds, etc.

Higher your score, lower the risk of lending you money is. The obvious effect of getting a perfect credit score is having to payout the new loans with lower interest rate. So, the score offers a bird’s eye view on your capability to pay back all the loans you are supposed to as the price for a number of assets you collected.

With a low credit score you can complain about a number of problems like,

- You are paying unnecessarily high interest rates for existing debts.
- All the alluring deals beckon you from the highway billboards and you are forced to drive past them without showing much interest.
- Your credit cards ran dry even before the Christmas offers set in properly and gifts bought for all the members in your family.

These might be only a few among what you go through every day. In that case, this is the right time to go for the 30 day credit repair course we are offering. Our Credit Repair E-course is the one stop solution to get out of your debt-damages.
