Please watch this video about VIPKIDS and do some online research on the company and its service, then discuss which imperative(s) about studying intercultural communication (among the six mentioned in the textbook) this case illustrate and how.

After watching the video about VIPKIDS, think of a learning experience, academic success, ethical, and technological imperative. Research the program to identify which cultural relationship between China and North America and ethical relationship between students and teachers. It is also learning, which illustrates how to learn English as a second language.

Comment:
How is it illustrating the economic, peace, and technological imperatives? Could you be more specific?
