
CCE Program Approval Application

The ICF CCE Program Application review normally takes 30 days. In order to properly publicize your event, we suggest that you submit the application at least 90 days in advance.

Before starting the application, please review the following tips:

- Applications must be completed in one sitting as applicants are not able to start the application and continue completing it at a later time.
- Use one of the following compatible Internet browsers to avoid issues with submitting your information: Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Safari.
- If you are delivering training that only qualifies as Resource Development CCE you are not eligible for the CCE Program Approval Process. Please CLICK HERE for more information.

Statements of Agreement, Compliance and Limitations

Duty to Notify

The ICF requires all ACTP, ACSTH and CCE programs to notify the ICF when the following changes are made to the program after its approval or accreditation:

- New ownership or new organizational partner
- New contact person or contact information
- New training location or new delivery method
- New program name
- New class added or class taken away (no need to notify of minor changes to class curriculum)
- New certificate
- New Director of Training (ACTP only)
- Major change to the exam process (ACTP only)

Limitation of Approval/Accreditation

We acknowledge that the approval or accreditation of this program, if granted, will apply only to the program listed in this application. It will not apply to any other program operated by the organization.

Furthermore, we acknowledge that the approval or accreditation of this program, if granted, will apply only to the program operated by the organization and owner(s) listed in this application. It will not apply to and cannot be used by any franchisee, licensee, or secondary distributor of any kind or by any program that does not use the existing infrastructure described in the application and administered directly by the program owner/s and/or Director of Training (ACTP). Any such programs are considered new programs and must file separate, independent applications for approval or accreditation.

Statement of Compliance with Copyright Laws

All programs shall be in compliance with copyright laws of its home country and the countries within which it operates for the source and ownership of materials and training content used in your training program. If not uniquely developed by your agency, the agency must have authorization, i.e., licensing, etc. to use these materials/content.

Documentation should include the signed statement below regarding compliance with copyright laws and ownership. If the program is utilizing licensed content, upload a copy of the license agreement or statement from your licensor stating that you have a license to use the material.

We acknowledge by the signature below that we agree to the following:

We agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the ICF in the event of any claim made against the ICF related to the possible approval/accreditation of our program.

We represent or attest that the program is and will be taught in alignment with the ICF Definition of Coaching, Code of Ethics, Core Competencies and the Code of Conduct.

We represent or attest that the program will generate and maintain documented student records, including evaluations of each student's progress and attendance/participation for each individual training course.

We agree to abide by the decision/recommendations of the ICF.

We agree that the ICF and its appropriate committees or members have our permission to audit and or validate the accuracy of any and/or all information provided in the application process.

We agree that when an ICF staff member or a reviewer determines that there is insufficient documentation to make a final decision on the application, the Program will collect and submit additional documentation.

We agree to notify the ICF of all changes to the program of the type listed under the section "Duty to Notify" on this application.

We agree that the ICF has the right to audit our training program at any time to ensure continued compliance with ICF ACTP, ACSTH and CCE requirements.

We agree to cooperate with audits of conformance to all ICF ACTP, ACSTH and CCE requirements, including review of files, classes, faculty, student records and interviews with students and staff by an authorized ICF auditor.

We agree that all audit costs incurred by the ICF will be reimbursed to the ICF by the training provider.

We agree to honor the rules and regulations of the ICF approval/accreditation process. We further agree that the ICF has sole discretion to issue, amend or revoke the rules and regulations governing such approval/accreditation. We agree to abide by any decision of the ICF regarding the matters of approval/accreditation, including changes in regulations, and the revocation of credentials, approvals, or accreditation.

We understand and agree that the application fees for ACTP, ACSTH and CCE are review fees and do not guarantee program approval.

We understand that all fees for ACTP, ACSTH and CCE are non-refundable.

ICF retains the right to increase fees without prior notice.

The contact person of the Coach Training organization named in Part 1 of this application hereby warrants and represents that it is in compliance with applicable copyright laws as to the ownership of materials and training content used in its training program and that it holds full ownership and copyright to the program curriculum. The agency agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the ICF in the event of any claim made against ICF related to copyright infringement based on ICF's possible approval/accreditation of the program curriculum.

The approval of your program, if granted, will apply only to the program operated by the organization listed in this application. It will not apply to and cannot be used by any franchisee, licensee, or secondary distributor of any kind or by any program that does not use the existing infrastructure described in the application and administered directly by the applicant. Any such programs are considered new programs and must file separate, independent applications for accreditation.

We acknowledge by the signature below that we agree to the above listed statements of agreements: *
