NEW! SPRING DAFFODILS

*And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.*

—William Wordsworth

One of the first flowers of spring, the bright daffodil heralds the return of the sun. This hardy blossom is also a symbol of Wales, customarily worn on St David's Day (March 1). Sterling silver and 18k gold plate. 17" chain.

NEW! THE BLACK ROSE

*I would walk in the dew beside you, or the barren moors
In hopes I might have your heart, or part of your love
Fragrant branch, you have promised that you love me
The fine flower of Munster, my Roisin Dubh*

Roisin Dubh, the black rose, is an ancient Gaelic love song. Here, a black rose blooms beneath a full moon. Pewter pendant, with enameled moon and resin rose. On a hefty 21" chain.
