BONFIRE OF THE SUN

The Celts marked many festivals of the sun with great bonfires—to celebrate the sun's return in spring and summer, and to invoke its light and power in fall and winter. This pendant invokes the mysterious power of the bonfire—a stylized silver flame, with cutouts revealing golden sun-like interior. Rounded pendant of two joined pieces hangs freely on its chain, wavering and dancing like a flickering fire. Sterling silver with inlaid brass interior, on 18" chain. Designed in Northern Ireland by Una O'Boyle.

BRIDGET'S CROSS

Bridget, both the saint and her pre-Christian predecessor, is protector of the hearth. Irish women would weave a Bridget's cross of grassy rushes to hang over the door to bring good fortune. This unusual binding-knot Bridget's cross of sterling silver is made in Ireland by Martina Hamilton. On 18" chain.
