God Is Here

Appealing to all generations of faith, David Haas's new recording, God Is Here, speaks to themes of reconciliation, transformation, and hope. This recording features moving vocal performances by David along with other well-known GIA artists and composers, including Kate Cuddy, Lori True, Tom Franzak, Marty Haugen, Tony Alonso, Joe Camacho, and Michael Mahler.

This proclamation of Christ's healing good news reminds us that through it all, no matter how many times we fall, God Is Here. CD-631

Reach toward Heaven

With this new collection of music for the liturgy, composer David Haas encourages us to reach toward heaven in our everyday lives—to trust in the power of Christ, to be people of joy, and to seek a life of gratitude.

With the singable tunes and inspirational texts that define David Haas's music, Reach toward Heaven is sure to become another classic. CD/CS-566

Do This in Memory of Me: Service for Holy Communion

Do This in Memory of Me is a glorious example of the musical "tie that binds" all Christians together. Both Protestant and Catholic denominations alike can use this music to make a joyful noise! CD/CS-554

Echo of Faith

Dedicated to the memory of four pastoral musicians, David Haas has created a loving tribute in this recording.

Echo of Faith is a wonderful collection, both for those who make music and those who love to listen. CD/CS-507

Before I Was Born

Before I Was Born provides new contemporary sounds with settings for Eucharist, sacramental celebrations, various seasons of the liturgical year, and celebrations that involve young people. CD/CS-448

We Give You Thanks

This major endeavor from David Haas includes an innovative new mass setting drawn from the musical motifs of his top-selling communion song, "We Give You Thanks." CD/CS-436

Alive in Christ Jesus

In response to many requests, David has gathered together his most popular Lent and Easter music into one convenient collection—many available for the first time on compact disc and in convenient choral octavos. Drawn from his popular Who Calls You by Name series, this fine collection includes many selections for Triduum, complimented by titles appropriate for funerals and reconciliation. CD/CS-416

Throughout All Time

From infant baptism to funerals, from Advent to Holy Thursday, you'll find songs for social justice, thanksgiving, mission, the Chrism Mass, and other occasions in this collection. In addition to David's original texts, there are texts by Jaroslav Vajda, Timothy Dudley-Smith, and Brian Wren. Original compositions by Dan Damon and Kate Cuddy round out this eclectic collection. CD/CS-392

A two-volume offering, volume I: Blest Are They and volume II: You Are Mine represent the best of fifteen various recordings by David Haas.

CONTENTS: Vol. I: Christ Will Be Your Light • Now We Remain • As Water to the Thirsty • The Name of God • My Lord Will Come Again • My God and My All • Alleluia! Let Us Rejoice! • Magnificat) • Dust and Ashes • Send Us Your Spirit • Voices That Challenge • Prayer for Peace • We Are Called • Blest Are They. CD/CS-340

CONTENTS: Vol. II: You Are Mine • Come and Journey with Me • Song of the Risen One • Deep Within • We Will Drink the Cup • We Have Been Told • You've Searched Me • We Will Rise Again • Song of the Body of Christ • Alleluia Sing! • How Shall I Sing • Wonder of Wonders • You Are the Presence • At Evening. CD/CS-341

Table Songs, Volume 2

True communion songs celebrate the communal nature of the moment, bringing the entire church together in song and prayer as the people share in the Lord's Supper. The songs composed and chosen by David Haas for Table Songs, Volume II do just that, with striking melodies and easy-to-learn refrains. CD-607

Table Songs

David Haas's "Table Songs" are not just "Communion songs" as we know them, but rather songs designed to accompany the communal action of the moment. The personal piety of the individual has been set aside in this collection. Instead, you'll find songs with refrains that are easily memorized so that the entire community may join together in song at the Lord's supper. The eighteen titles include communion songs for general use as well as selections for specific seasons and feasts. CD/CS-265

No Longer Strangers

Containing a wealth of useful material for the pastoral musician, from the beautiful and moving choral setting of an ancient second-century text from the Odes of Solomon an exciting gospel arrangement of the title song, this recording will be a listening favorite. CD/CS-298

Where the River Flows

This honest and heartfelt collection is a definite departure for David. Instead of his trademark uplifting melodies, these renderings put us in touch with different human feelings, including lamentation. David normally uses only original melodies, but here he interprets some traditional tunes, bringing them a unique freshness. CD/CS-349

Mass for the Life of the World

This mass setting cuts across cultural boundaries, speaking to all people of peace, hope, and unity. Cultural bounds are bridged with Spanish translations for almost all the mass parts and the penitential rite includes Hawaiian. The mass includes a musical setting for the eucharistic prayer with sung parts for choir and congregation and spoken parts for the presider. This is one collection no parish should be without. CD/CS-285

Creating God

From Taizé-style prayer to a song based on ancient Hawaiian chant, this delightful recording contains a wide variety of music appropriate for Eucharist. CD/CS-213

To Be Your Bread

Probably David's most popular recording. Includes his classic "Blest Are They." CD/CS-172

As Water to the Thirsty

Songs to celebrate the essence of the Christian story, Jesus Christ risen in our midst. Perfect for RCIA celebrations and the seasons of Easter and Lent. CD/CS-177

Unless otherwise noted, CD—$16.95 / cassette—$10.95

Turn My Heart

The Turn My Heart recording seeks to fill the need for music during times of tragedy and grieving in our lives and does so with tender care.

Now, while war and tragedy surround us, Turn My Heart shines through as a timely collection as well as a gentle and touching reminder of the power of faith in our lives. Makes a wonderful gift for those experiencing troubling times. CD/CS-547

Gift of God

The first general-purpose collection from Marty in years, Gift of God is top-notch, offering a wealth of hymns and songs for all Christians. Several texts are by Susan Briehl. CD/CS-501

Come, Let Us Sing for Joy

At the heart of this collection you'll find a lovely mix of psalms, suitable for various seasons of the church year, written and arranged in a variety of styles. CD/CS-470

The Song and the Silence

The texts: words of comfort, consolation, hope, and trust in an ever-loving God. The music: comforting and soothing, calming and meditative. CD/CS-449

New

Unfailing Light

Unfailing Light provides a simple, engaging, faithful setting for communities who wish to offer an alternative Holy Communion service in the evening. This lovely and peaceful setting features the wonderfully singable tunes of Marty Haugen. Unfailing Light was commissioned by Lutheran Campus Ministry at the University of Texas at Austin. CD-610

Beneath the Tree of Life

Marty Haugen has created this Communion service to celebrate the common heritage among Christians. The recording highlights the musical texts common to many Christian communions, including "Glory to God," "Alleluia," the eucharistic acclamations, "Lamb of God," and various songs. CD/CS-463

Up from the Waters

A timely and useful recording that contains music for the rite of Christian initiation of adults that will bring to life the musical moments of the rite itself, the sacred days of the Triduum, and the glorious time of mystagoga. CD/CS-404

The Haugen Anthologies

Two volumes spanning a decade of the memorable works of Marty Haugen.

Anthology I: 1980-1984

CONTENTS: Anthology I: Cantic of the Sun • My Soul in Stillness Waits • We Walk by Faith • Sing Out, Earth and Skies! • To You, O Lord • Child of Wonder • The Light of Christ • We Are Many Parts • Be with Me • Rejoice, Rejoice! • Eye Has Not Seen • Taste and See • Tree of Life • We

Remember • Gather Us In. CD/CS-400

Anthology II: 1985-1989

CONTENTS: Anthology II: All You Works of God • Shepherd Me, O God • Bring Forth the Kingdom • Carol at the Manger • Return to God • Gloria/Mass of Remembrance • Song of St. Patrick • Song over the Waters • Come to the Feast • Awake, O Sleeper • Now in This

Banquet • Cherry Tree Carol • One Ohana • Healer of Our Every Ill • Let Justice Roll like a River • God of Day and God of Darkness. CD/CS-401

All Are Welcome

A collection for worship by one of our time's most accomplished liturgical composers. Arranged simply, All Are Welcome is intended to be performed with either grand or limited resources. Abounding in the Haugen tradition, the title hymn is a song of gathering and therefore a natural outgrowth of "Gather Us In." CD/CS-327

Wondrous Love

Bring new life to your celebration of Lent, Holy Week, the Triduum, and the Easter season with this lovely seasonal favorite. CD/CS-249

Now the Feast and Celebration/Holden Evening Prayer

Although based on the Lutheran Communion Service, much of this material will be of interest to all Christian denominations. This lovely setting of vespers follows the traditional form while using contemporary and inclusive language. CD/CS-220

Shepherd Me, O God

A splendid recording for the seasons of Lent, Easter, and Pentecost. Contains Mass of Remembrance. CD/CS-185

Song of God Among Us

A collection of songs in the Haugen tradition, this recording contains music appropriate for all seasons. CD/CS-174

Mass of Creation

Undoubtedly the most widely used Mass setting in the Catholic Church. Now includes the "Kyrie" and the "Glory to God." CD/CS-168

Musicals by Marty Haugen

New

That You May Have Life

Debuted at the 2005 Los Angeles Religious Education Congress, Marty Haugen's new musical, That You May Have Life, proclaims the Gospel of John through song. An eclectic array of musical styles sets the stage for each chapter, bringing the emotion of the characters to life. Musical selections range from beautiful melodic ballads to lush choral harmonies. Haugen incorporates narration, sung dialogue, and song in a way that conveys more than just the biblical texts. This musical includes such familiar narratives as the woman at the well, the raising of Lazarus, and the washing of the feet at the Last Supper. The depth and breadth of each tale blooms forth, enticing us into a personal relationship with these familiar biblical figures. That You May Have Life sings these stories "that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah and that through believing you may have life in his name."

New
Taizé: Instrumental, Volume 2

Like its predecessor, Taizé: Instrumental 2 is a recording of guitar and flute accompaniments designed to support communities and groups who have the desire to pray in song. Unlike the original Taizé: Instrumental that mirrors the songs found on Laudate Omnes Gentes, this collection of 19 songs is a sampling of your favorite Taizé melodies from 11 of their most popular recordings. As with the first, Instrumental 2 comes with easy to sing refrains printed in six different languages. Solo and duet flutes play melodies and simple descants while the guitar accompanies throughout. Again, a helpful resource for small prayer groups or listening enjoyment! CD-651

Taizé: Instrumental

This recording by the Taizé Community offers all the songs found on Laudate Omnes Gentes, but in instrumental versions only. Taizé: Instrumental was created to support small groups who wish to pray in song, but are uncomfortable singing a cappella or do not have the resources for live instrumental accompaniment. Ideal for small prayer groups! CD/CS-586

Venite Exultemus

From the Taizé Community comes another stunning new recording! Venite Exultemus features many of the never-before-recorded chants that have become popular in Taizé over the past few years, including "The Kingdom of God," "Venite, exultemus Domino," and several wonderful chants in Spanish. Many different languages are represented on this recording as well as two songs from the eastern Christian tradition, "Alleluia, Slava tiebie Bože" and "Bogoroditse Dievo." CD/CS-529

Joy on Earth

Joy on Earth is a recording of prayerful works, employing only English and Latin, and intended for persons in English-speaking countries. In the Taizé tradition, this recording reproduces the atmosphere of prayer in the Taizé Community.

CD/CS-443

Sing to God

While most Taizé recordings use many languages, reflecting the international nature of the Community, this one includes all verses and many refrains sung entirely in English! CD/CS-380

New
In the Spirit of Taizé

In the Spirit of Taizé is an American recording of the music of Taizé. It was recorded live at Ascension Church in Oak Park, Illinois, under the direction of David Anderson. Since October of 1992, on the first Friday of each month, Ascension Church has welcomed Christians from many traditions to pray in the spirit of the Taizé Community. Praying in word, song, and silence, the gathering has grown from an initial group of 30 people to over 800 people each month. This magnificent recording truly captures the spirit of Taizé! CD-612

Laudate Omnes Gentes

Uniting beauty and simplicity, Laudate Omnes Gentes comes from the heart of the Taizé Community as it brings together well-known songs by Jacques Berthier and more recent songs composed by brothers of the Community. Listeners will be enchanted by the gloriously delicate choral sound, recorded at the twelfthcentury village church at Taizé. CD/CS-575

Bendecid al Señor!

This is the first CD to be recorded in Taizé specifically for the Spanish-speaking public. Nearly all of the songs and solos are in one or other of the dialects of Spain. A much-needed addition to the range of recordings available from the beloved Taizé Community in France. CD/CS-498

Taizé: Ubi Caritas

On this recording, music written for the Taizé Community by Joseph Gelineau is combined with the music of Jacques Berthier. Various solos in Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Polish, Spanish, with Latin refrains. CD/CS-399

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Continuing the tradition of music that is prayerful and accessible to all people regardless of language, this recording from Taizé contains numerous songs never before recorded. Solo verses in 18 languages. CD/CS-325

Jubilate

Using twenty languages, this recording reflects what Taizé is today: a community of brothers from more than twenty different countries, a meeting place of young adults from every continent.
CD/CS-284

Songs and Prayers from Taizé

This recording features the music from the very popular collection Songs and Prayers from Taizé which contains coordinated materials for those who wish to prepare Taizé prayer for their community.
CD/CS-266

Alleluia

Recorded live at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, during an international pilgrimage, this recording defines itself by its exquisite use of musical instruments and crisp live sound quality.
CD/CS-194

Wait for the Lord

Recorded in the United States, this is the only recording of the Taizé performances to be captured in a studio. Superior sound and a superb choral performance lend to the excellent quality of this recording.
CD/CS-173

Taizé Videos

Lumen Christi/The Risen Christ

Within the framework of the Holy Week liturgies celebrated at Taizé, observe this unique community while it celebrates with thousands of young people who embrace faith in Christ's resurrection.

Faith and be glory! Solas, a group of 29 talented musicians from Northern Ireland (both Catholic and Protestant), deeply touched many of us with both story and song. This is their first collection. CD/CS-318

New

There Is Room for Us All
Lori True

The clarion voice of Lori True rings out a message of justice and peace in her new recording, There Is Room for Us All.

Ruth Duck and Mary Louise Bringle lend thought-provoking texts filled with heartfelt pleas for relief from pain, poverty, and oppression. There Is Room for Us All challenges us to enter into "a deeper communion with 'the poor ones here in our midst.'" CD-639

A Place at the Table
Lori True

Long a singing talent on the recordings of David Haas, Marty Haugen, and others, Lori True now emerges as a bright new composer with a voice of her own in A Place at the Table. This impressive debut is a well-rounded collection of music you'll use again and again.

Texts by established hymn writers Ruth Duck, Brian Wren, Shirley Erena Murray, and Sylvia Dunstan, as well as original texts by the composer, are paired with Lori's truly singable melodies. CD-535

New

By Heart
Tony Alonso and Gabe Huck

This recording includes simple, beautiful arrangements of some of the most beloved songs of the principal liturgical seasons. CD-624

New

When Morning Breaks and Evening Sets
Tony Alonso, Lori True, and Michael Mahler

With love and faith, the tradition of our Church is passed from generation to generation. As Morning Breaks and Evening Sets introduces young people to the biblical form of prayer known as the Liturgy of the Hours.

From the hands of three of today's "next generation" of liturgical composers, Tony Alonso, Michael Mahler, and Lori True, this recording and music collection offer seventeen wonderful new contemporary settings of psalms, canticles, and hymns for morning and evening prayer. CD-609

How Can We Be Silent?
Michael Mahler

There's a new voice and a fresh sound in liturgical music coming from then-21-year-old composer Michael Mahler. This album features strong singable refrains and contemporary instrumentation that are sure to move you. CD/CS-538

Cantemos al Señor / Let Us Sing to the Lord: Salmos Bilingües para la Semana Santa / Bilingual Psalms for Holy Week

Tony Alonso and Michael Mahler

From two of today's best young liturgical composers comes an indispensable collection of bilingual psalms for Holy Week. Full Spanish and English versions of each song have been composed along with a bilingual refrain. Several are even written so that the English and the Spanish refrains may be sung together to create a glorious choral mix of languages! CD-560

Fresh as the Morning
Tony Alonso

An impressive first collection by a young composer, Fresh as the Morning offers a variety of music, including psalms, hymns, and communion and gathering songs. CD/CS-506

Reaching out to the hearts and musical sensibilities of a wide range of Christian believers, Fr. Tim Valentine's Rhythm and Rhyme unites both contemporary and classical sounds with inspired texts to create a wonderful new collection of music for the Church. CD/CS-534

The Fire of Love

Liberally scored for various instruments, this music with strong biblical texts and a fresh sound will have great appeal for young adults and adults alike. CD/CS-417

Margaret Rizza

Fountain of Life and Fire of Love

Margaret Rizza's distinctive style of hauntingly beautiful melodies is now recognized around the world as an example of all that is holy and best in sacred music. Her compositions are written as ostinatos or mantras and are wonderfully melodic, often with simple, repetitive melodies, carrying short, usually Scriptural, texts. The recordings of her music are stunning. These collections are some of the most wonderful music resources for contemplative worship today!
CD-572 Fire of Love
CD-573 Fountain of Life

James Chepponis

Jubilation Mass

After ten years of praying, writing, and revising, James Chepponis emerged with a mass setting that is musically spectacular, liturgically complete, and totally accessible!
CD/CS-465

Songs of Jubilation

Stunning liturgical music from one of the foremost composers in that idiom, performed by a four-chorus ensemble and brass instruments.
CD/CS-368

Cry Out with Joy

A wonderful 97-rank Casavant organ, which Fr. Chepponis played, brass, harp, woodwinds, and percussion complete the forces resulting in this marvelous recording.
CD/CS-223

Francis Patrick O'Brien

---

Maker of Heaven and Earth

A delightful combination of diverse musical styles. Though different, these songs carry a common thread of joyous reflection and Christian integrity.
CD/CS-492

Your Wonderful Love

Fran O'Brien has once again contributed wonderful choral settings to the repertoire in this collection, Your Wonderful Love. The musical styles are diverse, the writing first-rate! CD/CS-383

You Are All We Have

Fran O'Brien's first recorded collection, produced by David Haas, contains a long list of hits. This is solid choral music for either the classical or contemporary choir. CD/CS-262

Bob Moore

Like a Whisper in the Heart

Performed by the Cathedral Singers, Moore graces the words of renowned hymn-text authors with his sensitive, pastoral compositional style. CD/CS-558

This Our Joy and This Our Feast

This recording is second to none: masterfully crafted compositions resplendent with interesting harmonies married to texts selected from the works of the finest hymn writers of our time. CD/CS-450

When the Lord In Glory Comes

Full of masterfully written selections, Bob Moore's compositional style shines through in this debut recording. CD/CS-304

Various Artists

New

Ritual Moments Paul Inwood

Ritual Moments is a collection of new compositions by Paul Inwood written specifically to accompany the rituals of the church, from baptisms to weddings to funerals. You'll find beautiful pieces appropriate for celebrating the church's sacraments, rites of Christian initiation, and other various occasions. CD-640

New

Radiating Christ Alexander Peloquin

Even if you are too young to remember the man, you have at least felt the influence of Alexander Peloquin in the world of liturgical music. His innovative style and love of sacred song shined through his compositions, transforming music in liturgy after the Second Vatican Council.

This commemorative recording will touch the hearts of people who remember Dr. Peloquin and will surely delight those who are being introduced to his music for the first time. CD-604

God of Our Comings and Goings Carol Browning

Her octavos have been featured in our Choral Subscription Series and in numerous reading sessions. Now, Carol Browning's original compositions are available on CD and cassette!

Great for contemporary ensemble, Carol's catchy refrains spark natural assembly participation. CD-553

Were You There Carla J. Giomo

Readings from Luke's Passion Gospel are interspersed with choral settings of hymns and spirituals. Also included on this CD is Giomo's Vespers: A Service for Evening Prayer, which is useful for parishes that hold midweek Lenten worship services. CD-544

Mass of the Angels and Saints Steven R. Janco

This classical style recording includes two versions of the popular Mass of the Angels and Saints plus eight additional titles. A wide use of instruments coupled with fine choral singing creates an uplifting listening experience. CD/CS-385

We Will Remember Susan J. Paul

Composer-singer Susan J. Paul brings a new and powerful sound to GIA with this debut recording! Susan's strong voice and infectious contemporary pop style will have you singing along in no time. The songs "We Will Remember" and "River of Hope" have been used extensively at the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress. CD/CS-528

Come to the Feast James E. Moore, Jr.

With favorites never before available on CD, including the beloved "Taste and See," this lively new collection also includes new material Jim Moore has written in the past several years.

Gaudeamus! The Concord Brass Ensemble

What began as a demo recording designed to give brass ensembles—and church musicians who employ brass players—a link to a wealth of wonderful repertoire has turned out to be an extraordinary listening recording, equal to anything we've ever produced. The Concord

Brass Ensemble brings you inspiring and triumphant renditions of this festive repertoire, from J. S. Bach to William Ferris. CD/CS-503

Psalm of Hope
Felix Goebel-Kamala

New music from a rising star on the horizon, with a new setting of the text "Amazing Grace"
CD/CS-352

When Every Gate
John Foley

This first recording for GIA by John Foley contains haunting and memorable tunes, challenging yet satisfying choral parts, and inspiring texts.
CD/CS-303

Spirit of Malia
Marty Haugen, David Haas, Joe Camacho, Rory Cooney, Bobby Fisher, Rob Glover, and Michael Joncas.

Every fall the tiny parish of Malia Puka O'Kalani (St. Mary, Gate of Heaven) located in Hilo, Hawaii, hosts the Big Island Liturgy and Arts Conference. Inspiration abounds at this gathering and has sparked the spirit of the above-mentioned composers to write songs for the conference and the parish. A unique recording!

CD/CS-414

One Heart
Donna Peña, Pamela Warrick-Smith, and Theresa Donohoo

We hear three women's voices—a Hispanic American, and African American, and an Irish American—speaking from one heart, singing with one heart about women, equality, justice, and peace. CD/CS-372

On That Day
Scott Soper

In this recording of music for Lent, Triduum, and Eastertime, Scott shows off his compositional skills: a gift for melody, refined harmonies, evocative interpretations of psalms and canticles, and arrangements of traditional tunes. Includes "No Turning Back." CD/CS-395

A Mass of Life
Paul Gibson

This versatile mass, intended for both Ordinary Time and major feast days, is recorded in its entirety with full choir, organ, and trumpet in a celebration of the Feast of Pentecost.
CD/CS-289

A Time of Grace and A Sunday Vigil/The Ranguel Mass
Sylvanès/André Gouzes, OP

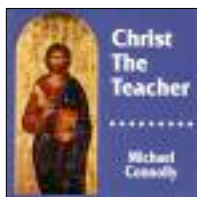

First brought to our attention by American visitors to St. Gervais in Paris and then by another friend of GIA at St. John of Malta Church in Aix-en-Provence, the compositions from Abbaye de Sylvanès inspired glowing reports of beautiful and simple music indelibly wedded to the liturgy.

This music was conceived and composed by André Gouzes, OP.

Borrowing from the unaccompanied four-part singing style of the Eastern rite churches, this music is a premier example of true ritual music.

A Time of Grace and A Sunday Vigil/The Ranguel Mass were recorded at the Abbey of Sylvanès by the Choir of Kings College, London.

CD/CS-373 A Time of Grace
CD/CS-371 A Sunday Vigil/The Ranguel Mass

Christ the Teacher
Michael Connolly

Recorded at the chapel of Christ the Teacher, University of Portland, Portland, Oregon.
CD/CS-302
