MARKUP

THE 7 LENSES OF BIBLE STUDY

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students of the Bible have been taking pen in hand to underline the text of Scripture and add notes to the margins of their Bibles for generations. Adding markups and notes is an effective way to slow down your reading in order to carefully observe what the text says and meditate on its meaning and implications for your life.

Biblearc's Markup Course will equip believers with carefully composed strategies for marking up the text of Scripture. Employing these "lenses" in your study will empower you to behold far more than you might otherwise see.

WORKLOAD

This course is composed of ten lessons, with each lesson ending in an assignment. Students are invited to progress at their own pace. Your coach will inquire as to your intended pace shortly after you begin and help keep you accountable to stay on schedule.

COURSE PROJECT

Path courses all end with an assessment to determine your grasp of the skills learned and material covered. Successfully passing an assessment requires a high degree of understanding and is meant to serve as a motivation to take your study seriously as well as a catalyst to improve the standard of Bible study in the Biblearc community.'

In the Markup course, students will work on a course project throughout the duration of the course, applying the seven lenses of Markup to a chapter of their choice. The assessment will consist of turning in their course project and writing a brief devotional.

Students who successfully complete the course and pass the assessment will earn Biblearc's Markup Certificate.

If you do not pass an assessment, you may retry after one week's time.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements: The course requires students to complete three tasks each week:

1. Read the lesson content (about 1.5 hours)
2. Complete the assignment(s) (about 1.5-2.5 hours)

The total amount of hours to finish Markup, therefore, is 30-40 hours.

Assignments: Weekly assignments allow students to apply the principles they learn.

Assessment: At the end of the course, students will turn in their course project.
