

Fourth Jewish Climate Action Conference

How Can We Work Together?

Hybrid event
Sunday, June 8
9:30am – 4:30pm

Early registration $45 til May 30 ($60 after that)
Discounts available for young adults and volunteers

The Fourth Jewish Climate Action Conference will inspire participants with the ongoing successful collaborative efforts underway and offer strategies for living a resilient and hopeful life in these troubled times.

Eight reasons to attend the Fourth Jewish Climate Action Conference:

- Keynote by David Abel, journalist and director of Inundation District – on the role of journalists and filmmakers in the climate crisis
- Plenary by John Walkey, Director of GreenRoots
- Remarks from Massachusetts Senator Elizabeth Warren
- Recorded address from Bill McKibben, founder of 350.org and Third Act
- Streaming link for Inundation District
- Performance of the movement's anthem The Tide Is Rising by Rabbi Shoshana Friedman
- Amazing speakers and panelists covering Judaism and Environmental Justice, Environmental Cooperation as a Path to Peacebuilding, Decarbonization Strategies, Greening Your Finances, Laughtivism, and much more!
- Delicious and inclusive catered vegan kosher lunch

Temple Beth Elohim
10 Bethel Road
Wellesley MA 02481

www.jewishclimate.org