

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile.
If only we could have you back
for just a little while.
Then we could sit and talk again
just like we use to do.
You always meant so very much
and always will too.
The fact that you're no longer here
will always cause us pain,
But you're forever in our heart
until we meet again.

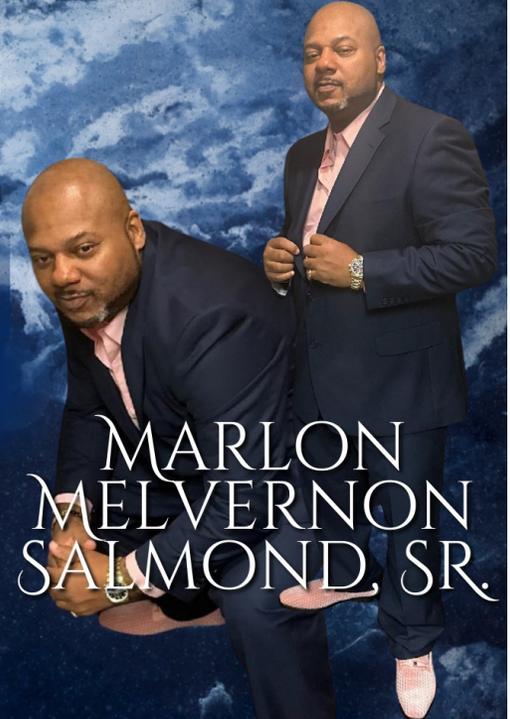

*In sincere appreciation, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to family and friends for the overwhelming support, comfort, and love extended to us during this time of loss. Your presence, condolences, and acts of kindness have provided solace and strength as we. The family of the late Marlon M. Salmond, Sr. would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions sympathy. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, thoughts and prayers have all helped greatly during our time of bereavement.

REVEREND RONALD WILLIAMS, PASTOR

Marlon MELVERNON SALMOND

On June 12, 2024, Mr. Marlon Melvernon Salmond, Sr., 49, of Camden, SC, known to many as "Meat-Meat," passed away at Spartanburg Hospice Hospital. His mother Phyllis Brevard, father Isaac Canty, sister Ariel Elaine Salmond, five uncles, and a host of other family members preceded him in death.

Marlon was a student at Norwalk High in Norwalk, Connecticut. Following graduation, he moved to South Carolina and settled there. Marlon had a number of jobs, the most recent of which was team lead at Suominen. Marlon was a selfless, brave, and gregarious man who put in a lot of effort to support his family. His heart was pure gold! You would fall deeply in love with him if you ever had the opportunity to meet him. In addition to working hard and taking care of his family, Marlon enjoyed smoking natural marijuana. Like he used to say, "This is my medicine." In addition, he loved going fishing and spending time with his family.

Those left to cherish are his step-father Harold Brevard of Asheville, North Carolina, his wife Celestia Jones of Camden, South Carolina; one brother, Rico Salmond of Camden, South Carolina; two sisters, Shiara (Chapelle) Edwards of Camden, South Carolina and Latasha (John) Lee of Lugoff, South Carolina; five sons, Marlon Salmond Jr., Justice Salmond, Shaki Salmond, Jayden Salmond, Camren Salmond all of Camden, South Carolina; four daughters, Kearra Salmond of Norwalk, Connecticut; Shakiya, Chanel and Kylie Salmond of Camden, South Carolina; three nieces; three nephews; one granddaughter, Treasure Boyke of Norwalk, Connecticut; two god mothers; Diane Lucas Miller of Camden, South Carolina and Paula Weldon of Norwalk, Connecticut, two god brothers; Justin Miller and EJ Barrett of Columbia, South Carolina, his god sister, Eshaute Miller, two favorite cousins, Vonetta Owens of Columbia, South Carolina and Peyshanna Lofflin of Norwalk, Connecticut; two bonus brothers: Lovell Kingsberry of New York and Sean Davis of Camden, South Carolina; four aunts and a plethora of other family members and friends.

*Don't cry for me now I have died,
for I'm still here I'm by your side,
My body's gone but my soul is here,
please don't shed another tear,
I am still here I'm all around,
only my body lies in the ground.
I am the snowflake that kisses your nose, I am the frost, that nips your toes. I am the sun, bringing you light, I am the star, shining so bright. I am the rain, refreshing the earth, I am the laughter, I am the mirth. I am the bird, up in the sky, I am the cloud, that's drifting by. I am the thoughts, inside your head, While I'm still there, I can't be dead.*
