Comments on Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet

- These files include comments entered in ECFS and sent to the open internet mailbox (openinternet@fcc.gov) during the comment window which ended on 18 July 2014.

- Direct mailed comments postmarked prior to 18 July 2014 are still being scanned and entered into ECFS and may not be reflected in this extract.

- Additionally, certain handwritten comments may not be recognized by the optical character recognition (OCR) software used by the ECFS document scanner, meaning searchable text may not be available for all comments in this data set. Because of this, source links to the ecfs comments are included in this extract.
