

2021 Biden Administration Regulatory and Policy Outlook for Manufacturers

Firm Event

January 13, 2021 from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm (EST)

Washington, DC

Webinar

What does a Biden presidency mean for U.S. manufacturers? Please join us on January 13, 2021 for a webinar to discuss the implications of Washington's pending power shift on the U.S. manufacturing sector.

We'll discuss the relevant priorities of the incoming Biden Administration and how those priorities might drive major policy and regulatory changes in the areas of trade, infrastructure, environment, energy, and more. We'll also discuss the challenges – and opportunities – of a closely-divided Congress in shaping the Biden Administration's agenda.
