

2025 Cambridge Forum on Defense Trade & National Security Policy

Speaking Engagement

October 5 - 7, 2025

Kristine Pirnia is participating in the 2025 Cambridge Forum on Defense Trade & National Security Policy. The Forum is an exclusive, invitation-only gathering for preeminent U.S. defense industry leaders to discuss challenges and trends in export controls, international trade, and national security. Hosted by Cambridge Forums, the forum provides a seminar-style setting for candid discussions on regulatory impacts, policy developments, and strategies for export regulation compliance, often including insights from key U.S. government officials.

Related Services

International Trade

Trade Policy

Export Controls and Economic Sanctions