Partner John Villafranco co-authored the Law360 article, "3rd Circ. Clips FTC's Wings To Prevent Stale Claims In Court." The article discusses the recent decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in the FTC v. Shire Viropharma Inc. case, which stated that the FTC may only bring a case under Section 13(b) of the FTC Act when the FTC can articulate specific facts that a defendant "is violating" or "is about to violate" the law.
