

A Congressional Forum: The Legislative Agenda for 2014

Firm Event

February 4, 2014 from 7:30 am to 12:00 pm (EST)

Washington, DC

Washington Court Hotel

525 New Jersey Ave, NW

Washington, DC 20001

As the 113th Congress returns to Washington for its second session, activities on Capitol Hill will be strongly influenced by the tension between legislative priorities and the politics of a Congressional election year, magnified by the realities of divided government. This dynamic presents opportunities for both bipartisan cooperation as well as partisan gridlock on key policy initiatives.

To learn how your business practices may be affected, please join Kelley Drye & Warren LLP's Government Relations & Public Policy Practice as the group presents "A Congressional Forum: The Legislative Agenda for 2014." This is Kelley Drye's 11th annual legislative forum, and provides an opportunity for our clients and friends to hear first-hand from leading policymakers about topics that will be relevant in the months ahead, including the economic outlook, tax, international trade, financial services, health care, energy and environment, international relations and infrastructure.

Speakers include:

Congresswoman Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV)

House Committee on Financial Services

Subcommittee on Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit, Chair

House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

Congressman Ed Royce (R-CA)

House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Chair

House Committee on Financial Services

Congresswoman Linda Sanchez (D-CA)

Senior Democratic Whip

House Committee on Ways and Means

House Committee on Ethics, Ranking Member

Congressman John Shimkus (R-IL)

House Committee on Energy and Commerce

Subcommittee on Environment and Energy, Chair

For more information please email govrel@kelleydrye.com or contact Heather Tighe at 202.342.8426.

Related Services

Government Relations and Public Policy