

Aaron J. Gold

Senior Associate

agold@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7800

About

Aaron Gold represents financial institutions and other large corporations in state and federal court across a wide range of issues, including securities fraud, contract disputes, and products liability.

Aaron previously served as a law clerk for the Honorable Anne M. Patterson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey and as an associate at two Am Law 20 law firms.

Experience

Represented Fortune 500 companies and individuals against allegations of securities fraud and stock manipulation.

Member of team that represented large financial institutions in multiple RMBS-related securities and breach of contract actions.

Defended an energy company against repeated malicious attempts to attach and execute on foreign sovereign's property allegedly in company's possession.

Pro Bono

Aaron actively engages in pro bono matters, including voting rights litigation, criminal, immigration and family appeals, and habeas corpus applications.

Related Services

Commercial Litigation
Litigation

Education

William & Mary Law School, J.D., 2015

- summa cum laude
- Order of the Coif, William & Mary Law Review, lead notes editor

American University, B.A., 2011

- cum laude
- Political Science and Interdisciplinary Studies

Admissions

New York, 2016
New Jersey, 2015

Courts

U.S. Supreme Court
U.S. Court of Appeals-Second Circuit
U.S. Court of Appeals-Fifth Circuit
U.S. Court of Appeals-Ninth Circuit
U.S. District Court-Southern District of New York
U.S. District Court-Eastern District of New York
U.S. District Court-District of New Jersey
U.S. District Court-Eastern District of Texas