Partner Aaron Rosenfeld was featured in Citybiz, who reported that Finmarc Management, Inc., recently completed the $77.5 million acquisition of Highline at Greensboro, a two-building portfolio of about 460,000 square feet of commercial office space in Tysons Corner in Northern Virginia. Aaron provided legal services to Finmarc.

"The acquisition was fueled by a combination of Finmarc's recent disposition of an 83,300 square foot flex/office building and an adjacent 6.4-acre parcel within Park East Corporate Center in Chantilly, Virginia; the sale of Capital Marketplace, a 383,000 square foot super-regional shopping center located in North Carolina; and the disposition of Festival at Manassas, a 118,000 square foot shopping center in Northern Virginia," Citybiz reports. "All three sales transactions were completed in the past six weeks," and Aaron and Kelley Drye represented Finmarc as lead counsel on all three sales.
