Join partner William MacLeod and other industry experts for the Abusive Acts or Practices Symposium. The Symposium will be the first in a series of policy symposia which will provide the Bureau an opportunity to seek information and perspectives from a panel of outside experts on relevant policy subjects. The symposia series follows the Bureau's recent Call for Evidence, which sought feedback on the Bureau's actions and policies. Through the symposia series, the Bureau will seek feedback from experts, including academics and practitioners, who have thought and written about subjects that are Bureau priorities.
