

Ad Law News and Views - July 3, 2019

July 3, 2019

["

RECENT NEWS

CCPA Update: Employee Exemption Bill Amended in Senate Committee

Court Rules Indian Tribe Cannot Regulate Hemp Production \(Yet\)

Senators Introduce Bipartisan Effort to Regulate Health Apps, Biometrics & Wearables

Stringent Automatic Renewal Law Set to Go Into Effect in VT

Yoga Influencers' Disclosures Show Limits of Flexibility

STAY CONNECTED IN 2019 BY SUBSCRIBING TO THE AD LAW ACCESS BLOG BY EMAIL OR RSS FEED.

UPCOMING EVENTS AND SPEECHES

California Consumer Privacy Workshop

July 18, 2019", "Washington, DC

Kelley Drye Workshop

Privacy and Information Security Practice Group

Antitrust Global Seminar Series: Tel Aviv

September 4, 2019", "Tel Aviv, Israel

ABA Antitrust Section

Alysa Hutnik

KELLEY DRYE ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNER

Kelley Drye's Advertising Practice Group is please to announce that Jaclyn M. Metzinger was elected to Partner in the Advertising and Litigation Practice Groups.

JACLYN M. METZINGER

Partner

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Sock Retailer Bombas Agrees to Pay \$65,000 to NY over Data Breach

Influencer Marketing Council Provides Tips on Influencer Fraud

USDA Legal Opinion Seeks to Clarify Interstate Transport of Hemp

Nevada and Maine Advance Legislation Addressing the “Sale” of Personal Data

House Appropriations Committee Cautions FDA to Focus on Public Health and Preserve Clinical Study Incentives as it Examines CBD Pathways

FTC Launches Two More Actions under the Consumer Review Fairness Act, Requires Companies to Stop Restricting Reviews through Form Contracts

FDA CBD Public Meeting Features Overwhelming Calls for Robust Regulation and Enforcement; Relaxation of Obstacles to Research

"]