

Ad Law News and Views - November 6, 2019

November 6, 2019

["

RECENT NEWS

FTC Releases New Guide for Influencers

Direct Seller Stands Its Ground: Neora Seeks Declaratory Judgment Against the FTC, Challenging the Agency's Section 13\(b\) Authority

CCPA Update: Prioritizing Compliance with Two Months Until the CCPA Takes Effect

FTC Commissioners Share Views on Privacy

"Puerto Rico's Favorite Pasta" Is Not NARB's "Favorite" Claim Without Substantiation

CCPA Draft Regulations: What to Know About Timing and Process

STAY CONNECTED IN 2019 BY SUBSCRIBING TO
THE AD LAW ACCESS BLOG BY EMAIL OR RSS FEED.

AD LAW ACCESS PODCAST

We launched the Ad Law Access podcast earlier this year - a new podcast to provide audio updates on advertising and policy law trends, issues, and developments. The latest episode is:

CCPA Update \(Amendments, Draft Regulations, and Classification issues\)

New episodes will be announced at AdLawAccess.com; the Ad Law Access podcast is available now through Apple, Spotify, Google Podcasts, SoundCloud, and wherever you get your podcasts.

UPCOMING EVENTS AND SPEECHES

California Consumer Privacy Webinar

November 19, 2019,"Webinar

Kelley Drye Webinar

Alysa Hutnik

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

CCPA Update: California Attorney General Issues Draft Privacy Rules

CCPA Update: California Governor Signs Seven Amendments to the CCPA

FTC Announces Settlement Over Fake Followers

FTC Announces Settlement Over Fake Reviews

"]