

Advertising, Consumer Protection, & Privacy Law: An Emerging Practice with Exciting Career Opportunities

American Bar Association

Speaking Engagement

February 3, 2015 from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm (EST)

Washington, DC

George Washington University Law School

Associate Donnelly McDowell will moderate a discussion about new career opportunities in advertising, consumer protection, and privacy law. Donnelly will join three panelists to provide students and other junior attorneys with the opportunity to dialogue with attorneys in the field about pathways into these emerging areas of the law. The program will also include a broad overview of the relevant laws and agencies that operate within the fields.

Related Services

Advertising and Marketing