

Advertising Law: Legal Considerations for Social Media Advertising

November 30, 2020

This session discusses the legal risks companies should consider when taking advantage of the growing opportunities in the social media arena. Our advertising attorney will review the legal landscape of publicizing customer endorsements, running promotions, managing user-generated content, and addressing intellectual property and right of publicity concerns.