About

Alison Frimmel focuses her practice on representing and counseling clients in all aspects of labor and employment law. Alison represents employers before federal and state courts and administrative agencies in defense of discrimination, retaliation, wrongful discharge, wage and hour, breach of contract, and tort claims.

In addition to her litigation practice, she counsels clients about a wide array of employment matters, including, developments in the state, local and federal laws, workplace accommodation requests, employee discipline and performance, and terminations. She also drafts employment policies and agreements and conducts workplace investigations.

Alison served as a law clerk to the Honorable Kimberly Espinales-Maloney, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Hudson County Vicinage for the 2015-2016 term. While clerking, she had the opportunity to work in both the Law Division and the Chancery Division Family.
