The Presidential, Senate and House Elections, Results and Policy Implications

Designed to serve as a comprehensive review of Tuesday's elections, our guide analyzes the 2012 results and looks ahead to the 113th Congress with an in-depth review of upcoming changes to the House and Senate. The presentation further reviews key policy issues facing the President and the Congress – most importantly the 'Fiscal Cliff' and what scenarios are available to resolve it. We've also covered policy topics including International Trade, Environment and Energy, Healthcare, Transportation and Infrastructure, Privacy and Data Security.
