

Associate Alysa Z. Hutnik Quoted Regarding Legal Careers for Security Professionals

March 19, 2010

Associate Alysa Hutnik was quoted in a GovInfoSecurity article titled "Legal Careers for Security Pros." The article discussed legal career opportunities for information security professionals, as well as listed potential positions within the legal field. Alysa outlined skills necessary for the security professional transitioning into a legal career. These skills included the ability to translate the importance of information security and privacy to clients, interest in technology, clarity of thinking and being research oriented.

Click here to read the full article.