Please Note: The host of the Telecom Law Monitor has made some technical improvements to how email notifications are sent. If you have signed up to receive email alerts, you will need to reconfirm to receive future alerts when we post new entries.

If you are not currently subscribed to receive email updates, but would like to, simply enter your email address in the field in the right-hand column of the blog home page.

Don't miss out – the Telecom Law Monitor is your guide to enforcement-related news, events and trends within the telecommunications field. From the FCC to the FTC, to State PUCs and AGs, to private litigation, we cover USF enforcement, truth-in-billing rules, Do-Not-Call developments, CPNI actions, access charge litigation, prepaid card enforcement actions and other related developments. Visit our Resource Center that provides two-click access to enforcement websites and relevant statutes and rules.
