

Boston Real Estate Times Notes Kelley Drye Representation of Lender in $250 Million Construction Financing

January 10, 2018

Kelley Drye was mentioned in the Boston Real Estate Times article “HFF announces $250 million construction financing for first phase of Bulfinch Crossing development” as representatives for the lender. The $250 million construction loan is for the development of Phase I at Bulfinch Crossing, a 46-story luxury residential tower with 368 rental units and 55 condominium units at 100 Sudbury Street in downtown Boston.

To read the full article, click here. Subscription may be required.