About

As a discovery attorney, Celesta Sligar focuses on providing e-discovery and document review support for Kelley Drye's clients across practices, industries and offices. Celesta works seamlessly with our case teams and is fully dedicated to serving our client's eDiscovery needs. She is able to provide ongoing discovery support beyond document review including: drafting of privilege logs and factual support for depositions, briefs and trials.

Celesta's prior professional experience includes several years of eDiscovery experience on government enforcement investigations and complex litigation matters including securities, bankruptcy, and antitrust matters. Celesta's experience includes supervising and managing electronic discovery and trial preparation projects; conducting privilege, relevance, and second level electronic discovery reviews.
