

Chief Judge Perspectives on Trade and Customs

2011 International Trade Update

Speaking Engagement

March 2 - 4, 2011

Washington, DC

Washington, D.C.

On March 4, 2011, partner Paul C. Rosenthal acted as a facilitator for the luncheon dialogue "Chief Judge Perspectives on Trade and Customs." The session featured the Hon. Donald C. Pogue and the Hon. Randall R. Rader. Mr. Rosenthal was also one of the 2011 International Trade Update program co-chairs, hosted by Georgetown University Law School and co-sponsored by Kelley Drye & Warren LLP.

The 2011 International Trade Update provided valuable, immediately relevant information on the key developments of that year and the following year in customs and trade law. The program emphasized practical tips, skill-building advice, and informed predictions about the year ahead.

Related Services

International Trade