

City & State NY Quotes Partner Dave Frulla on Cuomo's Offshore Wind Plan Impacting Scallop Fisheries

April 15, 2018

Partner Dave Frulla was quoted in the City & State NY article "How fishermen could thwart Cuomo's offshore wind master plan." The Fisheries Survival Fund is claiming that the Federal Bureau of Ocean Energy Management's federal offshore wind leasing procedure is worth hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue to the scallop industry and failed to appropriately evaluate other options. "It puts an exclamation mark on all our concerns," David noted. "We're not trying to stop offshore wind. It is just that this is right at the heart of where the fishing is."
