

Cole M. Daly

Associate

cdaly@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7560

About

Cole Daly focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation matters, including breach of contract, fraud, and joint venture disputes. Cole assists clients at every stage of litigation in both federal and state courts. His experience includes drafting and responding to pleadings, managing discovery investigations, and drafting dispositive motions.

Cole's experience includes representation of financial institutions, pharmaceutical manufacturers, and other clients in commercial and manufacturing disputes.

Before practicing law, Cole worked in the pharmaceutical industry for three years, most recently as an R&D Chemist. Prior to joining Kelley Drye, Cole was a legal extern to the Hoosier Environmental Council and a law extern to the Honorable Thomas More Donnelly in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Chicago, Illinois.

Experience

Member of a team representing the largest privately held spirits company in the world, defending its claims to the HAVANA CLUB trademark and seeking cancellation of Cuba's putative registration in the D.C. District Court.

Member of a team representing a pharmaceutical manufacturer in a breach of contract lawsuit under New York law that resulted in a favorable settlement of the claims.

Member of a team representing a generic pharmaceutical company in an antitrust multi-district litigation involving allegations of country-wide price fixing schemes.

Member of a team representing a generic pharmaceutical company in products liability cases involving Ranitidine throughout the U.S.

Member of team representing a cosmetic industry company in a manufacturing contract dispute under New York law.

Related Services

Litigation

Generic Pharmaceuticals

Education

University of Notre Dame Law School, J.D., 2023

- Notre Dame Journal on Emerging Technologies, senior editor

Iowa State University, B.A., 2017

- Chemistry

Admissions

New York, 2024