Congratulations to Alison Frimmel on her promotion to Special Counsel.

"Alison's exceptional legal instincts, dogged attention to detail, and strong relationships have always been and will continue to be one of the strong points of our L&E team," said Mark Konkol, the Chair of Kelley Drye's Labor and Employment practice group. "Her promotion to Special Counsel is a recognition of what she has already accomplished: outstanding results and consistently excellent client service."

Alison represents and counsels clients in all aspects of labor and employment law. She handles matters before federal and state courts and administrative agencies in defense of discrimination, retaliation, wrongful discharge, wage and hour, breach of contract, and tort claims. Alison also counsels clients on a wide array of employment matters, including developments in applicable laws, workplace accommodation requests, policy development, and she also conducts workplace investigations. Alison served as a law clerk to the Honorable Kimberly Espinales-Maloney in the Superior Court of New Jersey. She is a member of the New York and New Jersey Bars.

Ranked by Chambers USA and Legal 500 as a leading labor and employment defense team, the Kelley Drye team has a record of success in employment litigation and other disputes. For more than 60 years, our team advocated for employers in state and federal courts, before federal, state, and local agencies, as well as in arbitration and mediation.
