

Connecticut Law Tribune Reports on XPRT v. eBay

July 19, 2010

The Connecticut Law Tribune published an article, "Greenwich Firm Files Patent Suit Against E-Bay" which quoted partner Thomas B. Kinzler. The article reported on XPRT Venture LLC's lawsuit that alleges eBay violated six of XPRT's patents for an online payment system.

"Ebay used the inventor's information ... in order to make their PayPal work better," said Thomas B. Kinzler, another of XPRT's lawyers. "We contend they couldn't do that without our information."
