Kelley Drye is co-sponsoring the Asian American Bar Association (AABA) of Greater Chicago's social CLE event featuring a discussion on consumer bankruptcy. The event was held on November 11, 2009 at Kelley Drye's Chicago office. Anne Shaw, of Shaw & Associates, will speak on the topic of consumer bankruptcy. Ms. Shaw is primarily a civil litigator and concentrates in the areas of commercial litigation, civil rights and personal injury. Ms. Shaw was the recipient of the Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County's 2009 Civic Leader Award. A networking session with complimentary food and drinks will follow Ms. Shaw's discussion. The Asian American Bar Association of Greater Chicago offers professional networking and support for Asian-American lawyers throughout the area through events, publications, and resources.
